Quick Action by Deputies Leads to Daytime Burglary Arrests

Fauquier County Sheriff's Deputies have charged 2 adult males with breaking into a home in Remington. Charges are pending for a juvenile accomplice.

On Tuesday, September 1, 2015, at approximately 3:30pm, deputies responded to the 7000 block of Justin Court in the Remington area for a report of several male individuals attempting to gain entry into a residence. The caller advised he had just arrived home from work when he answered a knock at the front door. A black male individual asked suspicious questions and then left. The caller walked back through the residence and observed a white male individual on the rear deck looking through the door window and holding the door knob. This second individual immediately fled, the caller then noticed a third white male individual who appeared to be acting as a lookout.

Deputies arrived quickly and began to canvass the area. While questioning neighbors it was learned that other homes and attempted burglaries and at least one other home had been entered.

Investigation led deputies and detectives to a nearby residence on Helm Drive where the two adult suspects matching witness descriptions were located.

While questioning the adults a neighbor called after observing a male on a walking trail in his underwear. Deputies located this individual, a minor under 18 years of age, who was attempting to change clothes on the trail. This individual also matched witness descriptions.

Derieck Rakeem-Allen Prince, 18 of Remington and Bradley Russell Lewis, 18, of Remington are charged with 2 felonies of breaking and entering and grand larceny and 1 misdemeanor of destruction of property.

The juvenile is being held in detention on unrelated outstanding charges. Criminal charges for this incident are pending.

The investigation into this matter is on-going. Anyone who may have witnessed these suspects and have not talked with law enforcement is encouraged to contact the Sheriff's Office.
